SEVENTEEN TIGERS
AT TRAINING TABLE

Carothers, Graves and Ewing
Are the Latest
Additions.

MILLER NOT TO PLAY SATURDAY

Captain To Take No Chances
On Eve of Iowa
Game.

The Tigers are doing only light signal work now. Although the game Saturday was easy to win, it nevertheless was a hard work-out, and at no stage was it anything but a fight, for the Normals were game to the last. The weather was warm and the fact that the season is yet early also makes it necessary to condition the men carefully.

Several men were not out in suits yesterday. Bluck worked extra hard Saturday, and received Monday to rest. Gilchrist injured a tendon, and was out on the side-lines in street clothes Monday. Alexander is limping with a badly mashed foot—he's not sure whether it was one of the elephants in the circus or Bluck who did it.

Capt. Miller is still troubled with his bad knee, and was purposely held out of the game last Saturday in order to be in good trim for Iowa. A new brace has been ordered and he is expected to be as good as new against the Hawkeyes, but it is improbable that he will take any chances with Rolla next Saturday.

Sigler to Be at Table.

More men are being added to the training table as they show Varsity caliber. The list now comprises 17 men, and Sigler will join the table squad as soon as he arrives. Carothers began eating at the table Saturday evening, while Graves and Ewing were added Sunday.

The list now includes Miller, Carothers, Ristine, Hill, Anderson, Bluck, Roberts and Barnes as line material; Driver and Gilchrist, ends; Deatherage, quarter; and Nee, Alexander, Graves, Ewing, Crain and Nee, back-fielders.

Dr. Monilaw, who in addition to coaching, has assumed managerial duties this year, reports the sale of season tickets three times as great as for this time last year. Up to date $2,400 worth of tickets have been sold. It begins to look as if the finances of the Athletic Department this year, after many years of waiting, will be put on a sound basis.

Retired Army Officer Insane.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 7.—Capt. William B. Folwell, U. S. A., retired, who had seen service in the Philippines, came to Milwaukee a few months ago and was placed in a sanitarium. It was found he was a chronic paranoiac. His chief delusion was that he and Rudyard Kipling were the only "psychologically perfect" persons in the world. Because of his service in the regular army, the Government proffered to care for him and he was sent to Washington today to be placed in an asylum.

Spokane Man Develops Players in Grade Schools.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 7.—Twelve thousand pupils of thirty grade schools in Spokane will be under the direction of W. S. Kienholz, physical director, who is seeking material for the high school teams. He makes his headquarters in the administration building of the high school, where a complete gymnasium and indoor track with pool has been established, making frequent trips to the grade schools, where he conducts classes in calisthenics and physical culture and instructs the teachers in simple methods to be carried on at regular periods every day.

Physical work is now part of the daily program in most of the schools. In addition to his general work Kienholz is track, baseball and basketball coach at the South and North Central high schools. His track team won the championship of the Inland Empire at Pullman, Wash., last spring, and he also had a strong baseball team in the field. The high school will have a husky football team this year.

KERMIT ROOSEVELT
FOOTBALL TACKLE

President's Son Reports for Duty on Soldiers' Field.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 7.—Kermit Roosevelt, second son of the President, and brother of Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., who left Harvard in June, is a member of the freshman class at Harvard this year, and is already taking active part in Harvard athletics.

Kermit reported for freshman football Friday on Soldiers Field and will be one of the tackles this year. He played tackle at the Groton school, but did not make the regular school team on account of injuries. He is in better shape this year.

Engineers Elect Officers.

At a meeting of the Engineering Society in Engineering Hall last Friday night the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, W. G. Schmauder; vice-president, Herbert S. Gladfelter; corresponding secretary, Patterson Bain; recording secretary, L. R. Smith; treasurer, Russell See; Sergeant-at-arms, A. E. Porzelius.

Executor for Man He Killed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Walter C. Phillips, confidential secretary of John Leonard, retired steel broker of Montclair, N. J., who was killed by a shot from a revolver which Phillips was showing to him, was made a co-executor of Leonard's estate under the will of Mr. Leonard, which was filed at Newark. Phillips is under $1,000 bail, charged with criminal carelessness. The sum of $1000 was bequeathed to Phillips by Mr. Leonard.

Dowie Estate Short.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Gus D. Thomas, receiver for the estate of the late John Alexander Dowie, founder of the religious community at Zion City, Ill., has filed a report in the Federal Court showing the assets of the estate to be $1,706,647.

Against this are secured claims of $326,327, and unsecured claims, including a number still in dispute, of $4,903,725.

DETROIT WINS IN
THE AMERICAN

Race in Both Baseball Leagues
Closest in History of Game.

CHICAGO LEADS IN NATIONAL

Giants, to Tie for First Place,
Must Defeat Boston
Today.

By defeating the Chicago White Sox yesterday afternoon by a score of 7 to 0, the Detroit Tigers won the American League pennant for the second successive year.

Never in the history of baseball has the pennant race in both leagues been so close as this year. In the American League race the result was not determined until the end of the last inning of the last game. Had Chicago won from Detroit yesterday, the pennant would have gone to Chicago. Cleveland was not out of the race until her defeat Monday by the St. Louis Browns, who also had a look-in on the pennant until last week.

National League Race.

In the National League the race has been even closer than in the American. Chicago is now in the lead and will win the pennant unless the New York Giants win today's game from Boston. In that event the two teams will be tied for first place. Pittsburgh would have won the pennant had she won the last game of the season played with Chicago.

TWO GET PENSIONS FROM REVOLUTION

Both Draw Money by Special
Act of Congress—
Fathers Fought.

ONE 87, OTHER 92 YEARS OLD

Only 471 on Rolls From War
of 1812, Average Income
Being $167.59.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Only two pensioners of the Revolutionary War are left upon the Government rolls. They are Sarah C. Hurlbutt, aged 90 years, of Little Marsh, Pa., daughter of Elijah Weeks, who served in a Massachusetts company; and Phoebe M. Palmer, aged 87 years, of West Edmeston, N. Y., daughter of Jonathan Woolley, who served in a New Hampshire company. Both were pensioned by special acts of Congress.

The last surviving widow pensioner of that war was Esther S. Damon of Plymouth Union, Vt., who died Nov. 11, 1906, aged 92 years. The last surviving veteran of that war was Daniel F. Bakeman, who died at Freedox, N. Y., April 5, 1869, aged 109 years, 6 months and 8 days. One Revolutionary pensioner has died within the past year.

Average Pension, $167.59.

Of the War of 1812, only 471 pensioners remain. Eighty-seven died during the year. From the Indian wars there are left 4838 pensioners, and from the Mexican War, 9840, of whom 2932 are veterans. The Spanish War produced to date about 25,000 pensioners, while the pension rolls contain a total from all sources, including the Civil War and the regular army, of 951,687. The average value of each pension is $167.59 a year.

These facts are taken from the annual report of Vespasian Warner, commissioner of pensions.

During the past three years, since Mr. Warner has been commissioner, the bureau has paid out in pensions $16,502,671.28 more than was paid out for that purpose during the three years immediately preceding Warner's advent in the office, and yet the operating expenses of the bureau during Warner's three years were $2,187,581.31 less than for the three years before he came. Within the last three years Warner has paid out in pensions not less than $571,391,648.31.

A Notice to Voters.

I am going to leave it to the vote of those who have not paid their bills here whether I shall have an overcoat this winter. Those who vote "yes" will do so by "check;" others will please come and vote in person, explaining their reasons.
